Another dispatch gives the democratic 575 majority. Another dispatch reports the democratic 575 majority. Another dispatch gives the democratic 575 majority.

The entire returns of the State received this morning show the aggregate democratic gain, 3,063 over the Pennsylvania table, increasing the democratic majority to 8,645.

Ohio Election. CINCINNATI, Oct. 16, 1856. The Gazette says that the republican majority in Ohio is over 50,000, and that the American vote is less than 20,000.

Indiana Election. INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 17, 1856. The election of Hon. A. P. Willard, the democratic candidate for Governor, is conceded.

The republicans have a majority in the State Senate and the democratic in the House.

The democratic elect five Congressmen and the republicans three, certain. Three districts are still doubtful.

The Lafayette Journal, of the 16th instant, says:—The election passed off, yesterday, very quietly, notwithstanding the unusual degree of excitement which was felt in the result. Some slight disturbances occurred, but they were occasioned by drunken men, and at a distance from the polls.

The number of votes polled in this township, is 2,236, which is greatly larger than any former vote, and doubtless far beyond the legal vote of the township.

Important from Philadelphia. MEETING OF THE OPPOSITION COMMITTEE—THE PENNSYLVANIA ELECTORAL TICKET—ELECTION TRAPS IN PHILADELPHIA, ETC.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 17, P. M. The meeting of the Filmore Committee at the Washington Hotel this morning was very stormy. Mr. Sanderson, the Chairman, when called upon to define his position with reference to not being an American, dodged the question by stating that he was as much opposed to Mr. Buchanan as any of them. He objected to...

him, because he believed that Filmore would carry Maryland, Delaware, Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee, and the election would thus go the other, and he would be elected there.

Peter Martin, with seven others, argued long in favor of union with the republicans; but the fourteen other members of the committee carried it eventually against them. Granger, of New York; Day, the India rubber man, and Allen, of Boston, made themselves very eloquent with the meeting.

The last week in September was the period at which the meeting of the Filmore committee was brought over. Daniel S. Sickles was here at that time, in company with Mr. New York. Augustus Schell and Taylor (a. k. n.) arrived at the same time. The four were immediately closeted with Forney. This occurred on the 26th ult. The next day the democratic leaders declared themselves certain of carrying the State elections.

It is ascertained to-day that 6,000 American votes were cast for the democratic ticket in this city and county. The most unflinching rogues have been shown in Philadelphia, and the vote will be contested. William B. Mann, republican candidate for District Attorney, took the first step this morning in the Court of Common Pleas. The republicans believe they can strike several thousands of the democratic vote by contesting the returns. There are loud cries of vengeance against Forney.

The Republican and North American Committees are in session together at the former's rooms, in Walnut street. They have been joined by seven members of the Filmore Committee, and the whole body is now discussing the formation of an electoral ticket.

After being in session during five hours, the Republican and North American State Committees, with a portion of the Filmore Committee, have agreed upon a ticket which it is believed will entirely take the wind out of the sails of the pro-Filmore Filmore leader on the basis proposed by the Union electoral ticket, nominated on the basis proposed by the Union State Committee, in their call for a...

by a Union State Committee, to be held at Harrisburg on the 21st instant, to wit: twenty-six names in common; the twenty-seventh name to be different on the tickets voted for by the Filmore and Fremont men respectively, the vote of the electors, if chosen, to be cast pro rata according to the vote given for the twenty-seventh name respectively. It was also agreed that the electoral ticket to be voted for by the Fremont men should be headed by the name of John C. Fremont, and that to be voted for by the Filmore men...
